CONGRESSMAN DE LA GARZA NOTIFIES TWO HIDALGO COUNTY ORGANIZATIONS OF MORE THAN $10 MILLION IN GRANT FUNDING

For Immediate Release: 11 January 1994

WASHINGTON -- South Texas Congressman Kika de la Garza was happy to inform two Hidalgo County organizations of the approval of two Health and Human Services grants totaling more than $10 million.

The Bureau of Primary Health Care has awarded a grant to the Hidalgo County Health Care Corporation in Pharr in the amount of $1,859,731 for their Community Migrant Health Center project.

The Administration for Children and Families of HHS has awarded a grant in the amount of $8,456,724 to the Hidalgo County Head Start Program in Edinburg for their Head Start center.

"This is much needed funding," the 15th District Representative said. "It will help meet the real needs of residents of the Hidalgo County area, and that is what makes the announcement of the continuation of funding for these two organizations such wonderful news."
